

Grade 6/7 Year Plan

S. Barber barbers@prsd.ab.ca

The grade six and seven students will be studying literature and exploring the strands of the ELA Curriculum through the following units:

1. Poetry
2. Grammar and spelling units
3. The Breadwinner (novel study)
4. Independent novel study
5. Holidays and celebrations

Writing (Journals and Daily Work)

Speaking (oral presentations)

Listening (Listening to oral presentations by the teacher and other students)

Viewing and Representing (Book Reviews)

Marks Allocated each term

Daily work	20 %
Spelling tests	10%
Portfolio	30%
Unit exams	20%
Special Projects	20%

Within these units of study the students will meet the following outcomes as outlined in the English Language Arts Curriculum Guide:

1. Students will listen, speak, read, write, view and represent to explore thoughts, ideas, feelings and experiences.
2. Students will listen, speak, read, write, view and represent to comprehend and respond personally and critically to oral, print and other media texts.
3. Students will listen, speak, read, write, view and represent to manage ideas and information.
4. Students will listen, speak, read, write, view and represent to enhance the clarity and artistry of communication.
5. Students will listen, speak, read, write, view and represent to respect, support and collaborate with others.

Specific materials and assessment strategies as well as more specific learner objectives for each unit are outlined in Unit plans and Daily plans.